

My Gift to all of You.

I don't need to leave you anything, I already left it with you. Now it is your turn to pass it on.

Be who you are
Make everyday count
Always be generous
Do the unexpected
Try something new

Love honestly
Call your family often
Share your talents
Be comfortable in your own shoes
Wear pink spandex and a blonde wig
Wake up early, play hard, sleep well

In memory of a special person remembered and a beautiful life honored.
